Sree Siddaganga College of Arts Science and Commerce B.H Road, Tumakuru Anti-Ragging Cell Report of Flash Mob “Awareness on Ragging” 2023-24

Executive Summary:

This report outlines the planning, execution, and outcomes of a Flash Mob organized as part of an awareness program aimed at combating ragging on college campuses. The initiative was designed to engage students and promote a positive and inclusive atmosphere within educational institutions.

Objective:

The primary objective of the Flash Mob was to raise awareness about the detrimental effects of ragging and encourage a collective stand against this form of harassment. The event aimed to deliver a powerful message through a creative and attention-grabbing medium, fostering a sense of unity among students.

Planning and Coordination:

A committee comprising students, faculty members, and support staff was formed to plan and execute the Flash Mob. A centrally located area on the campus was chosen for the Flash Mob to maximize visibility. The date was chosen to execute on 8th January 2024 at 12 Noon.

Execution

Students from various academic disciplines were invited to participate in the Flash Mob, promoting inclusivity and diversity. 27 students of various streams were participated in the event.

During the Flash Mob, participants passionately held posters condemning ragging, transforming the dance routine into a powerful visual statement against the menace of harassment on campus.

Outcomes:

The Flash Mob witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty, and staff. The event attracted a large audience, creating a vibrant and positive atmosphere on campus.

Conclusion:

The Flash Mob served as a dynamic and impactful tool for raising awareness about the negative consequences of ragging. By engaging students through creativity and entertainment, the initiative contributed to building a safer and more inclusive campus environment.

The programme ended with the speech delivered by Dr. H P Veerabhadraswamy, Principal.

Awareness Program Report: "Combating Ragging, Sexual Harassment, and Understanding Legal Consequences" 2023-24

Introduction:

On June 12th, 2024, an awareness program was conducted at SSCASC, Tumkur with the aim to combat ragging, sexual harassment, and educate participants about their legal consequences. The program was organized in collaboration with IQAC and led by Sri Narayanaswamy K.N., Retd. Assistant Commissioner of Police, Bangalore. 110 Female students and 33 male students were participated in this program.

Objectives:

1. Raise awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and sexual harassment on individuals and communities.
2. Educate students about the legal definitions and consequences of ragging and sexual harassment.
3. Empower students to recognize and report instances of ragging and sexual harassment.
4. To provide support and resources for victims of ragging and sexual harassment.

Program Agenda:

1. Welcome Address: The program commenced with a welcome address by Chethan Kumar H G Dept. of English, and (Assistant IIC, student I BCA) introduced the guest speaker Sri Narayanaswamy K.N.
2. Lecture on Ragging: A comprehensive lecture was delivered by Sri Narayana Swamy K.N., Retd. Assistant Commissioner of Police, highlighting the various forms of ragging, its impact on victims, and the legal provisions under the Anti-Ragging Act.
3. Presentation on Sexual Harassment: A presentation shed light on the definition of sexual harassment, its prevalence, and the legal framework provided by the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act.

Key Takeaways:

1. Understanding the Problem: Participants gained a deeper understanding of the harmful consequences of ragging and sexual harassment on individuals' mental and emotional well-being and the broader implications for society.
2. Legal Awareness: Students became aware of the legal definitions of ragging and sexual harassment, as well as the legal provisions and penalties associated with these offenses.
3. Reporting Mechanisms: Information on reporting mechanisms, including helpline and support services, was disseminated to empower students to report instances of ragging and sexual harassment safely and confidentially.

4. An awareness program was organized on June 12th, 2024 with the aim to combat ragging, sexual harassment, and educate participants about their legal consequences. A guest speaker, Narayanaswamy K.N., Retd. Assistant Commissioner of Police, Bangalore was invited to address the students. The session covered laws and regulations related to ragging, including guidelines and the judicial process. Real-life case studies were discussed to illustrate the severity of legal actions taken against ragging.

Under the chairmanship of our new principal, Dr. T.B. Nijalingappa, the Anti-Ragging Cell held a meeting to review the year's activities and achievements. We are pleased to report that we have not received any complaints regarding ragging on campus. We remain committed to our mission of promoting safety, respect, and a positive atmosphere for all students.
